Create a Legacy at the University of Guelph

Through a gift in your will you can create a meaningful legacy at the University of Guelph. Legacy gifts and bequests are extremely important to the University.

They fund the work of our students, scholars, and researchers in many ways. We would be happy to work with you and your advisors to create your legacy which will benefit future generations in the years to come

Our Thanks

Behind every gift to the University of Guelph is a unique story about a graduate, friend, family or business person who believes in the power of education to transform lives and make a difference. These stories are deeply rooted in the philanthropic culture at the University of Guelph. We welcome the opportunity to publicly recognize and thank all our donors through the University of Guelph Society and its councils for life-time and annual giving. We celebrate your confidence, advocacy and generosity.
